

DECLARATION

Project Name:

Organisation Name:

We hereby declare that

- a) the information given on this form and elsewhere in support of the application is correct and,
- b) the project which forms the basis of this application has not started and no expenditure has been committed or defrayed.
- c) Copeland Community Fund can use the information in this form to process the application and hold the information on their computer system. Copeland Community Fund may provide copies of the details to partner organisations and may send details of successful applications to the media.
- d) Funding from Copeland Community Fund is automatically given under the De Minimis Regulation (EC) Article 87(1) of State Aid. State Aid is banned by the European Community Treaty, but smaller amounts are regarded as too small to significantly affect trade or competition. The amount that you receive from all sources in any three year period must be no more than €200,000 (GB Pounds equivalent on the date of application). You must list on your application all grant aid that has been given to you under the De Minimis Regulation in the last three years. A false declaration could give rise to the aid being recovered with interest.

If you believe that your project falls outside the State Aid regulations, you must explain why and you may need to provide a legal State Aid statement.
